

Who are BAR Members?

BAR = British Accreditation Regency

Black's Law (4th Edition): REGENCY. Rule; government; kingship. The man or body of men intrusted (sic) with the vicarious government of a kingdom during the minority, absence, insanity, or other disability of the king. REGENT. A governor or ruler. One who vicariously administers the government of a kingdom, in the name of the king, during the latter's minority or other disability.

Attorneys are members of the BAR. The American Bar Association is a branch of the Bar Council, sole bar association in England. All laws, today in America, are copyrighted property of a British company, all state Codes are private, commercial, British-owned "law". All attorneys follow instruction from the British Crown.

The courts today are private corporate courts run by the BAR (British Accreditation Regency) Association.

BAR Members

- "Between 75% to 90% of all lawyers are either incompetent, dishonest, or both."
Earl Warren (former) Chief Justice US Supreme Court
- "He is however in a sense an officer of the state with an obligation to the Court..." 7 Corpus Juris Secundum § 4 Attorneys
- "His first duty is to the courts and to the public, not to the client, and whenever his duties to his client conflict with those as an officer of the court, in the administration of justice, the former must yield to the latter." 7 Corpus Juris Secundum § 4 Attorneys

Who is an Attorney's Client - Ward of the Court

"Clients are also called "wards of the court"..." 7 Corpus Juris Secundum § 4 Attorneys

"Wards of court. Infants and persons of unsound mind. Davis' Committee v. Loney, 290 Ky. 644, 162 S.W.2d 189, 190. Their rights must be guarded jealously. Montgomery v. Erie R. Co., C.C.A.N.J., 97 F.2d 289, 292." Blacks Law Dictionary, 4th Edition, page 1755

So attorney's can ONLY represent WARDS OF THE COURT, INFANTS, PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

Ward of the Court

- A ward of the court is an imbecile.
- A ward of the court is not competent
 - Everything is about competence and incompetence!
 - That is why they are “representing” you, because you are not competent to make decisions for yourself.
 - Therefore the attorney is going to make the decisions for you.
 - There is no such thing as an incompetent sovereign.

“IN PROPRIA PERSONA. In one’s own proper person. It is a rule in pleading that pleads to the jurisdiction of the court must be plead in propria persona, because if pleaded by attorney they admit the jurisdiction, as an attorney is an officer of the court, and he is presumed to plead after having obtained leave, which admits the jurisdiction. Lawes, PI. 91.” Black’s Law Dictionary, 4th Edition, page 899-900

Attorneys are "Officers of the Court" (direct "conflict of interest", and attorneys are absolutely "BAR"red from challenging the jurisdiction of the court) and as such they have sworn to uphold equity law as it exists, and as they have been taught.

If you hire an attorney, then you admit the jurisdiction and you become subject to the court. BAR members can only regulate the practice of law if you give them jurisdiction. There are only two legal systems in the United States, Civil Law and Common Law. Civil Law operates under maritime/admiralty law jurisdiction.

“The practice of Law CAN NOT be licensed by any state/State.” Schwabe v. Board of Examiners, 353 U.S. 238, 239

“The practice of Law is an occupation of common right.” Sims v. Aherns, 71 S.W. 720 (1925)

The most important question one must ask himself is, "Am I of unsound mind requiring a guardian appointed to me by the court?"

Inns of Court

INNS OF COURT - "These are certain private unincorporated associations, in the nature of collegiate houses, located in London, and invested with the exclusive privilege of calling men to the bar;..." Black’s Law Dictionary, 5th Edition page 709.

- There is an American Inns of Court foundation
- Every state has a local Inns of Court chapters

According to Augustus Blackstone, the tie-in to the American Bar Association is the "Inns of Court". "The [American] Revolution swept away a `bar' in the English sense of an upper branch of the profession, possessing certain special privileges by virtue of its connection with the Inns of Court." [PRESENT-DAY LAW SCHOOLS IN THE UNITED STATES, 1928, by Alfred Reed.] However, the British Inns of Court eventually planted its roots on American soil. The following quote was taken from the American Inns of Court web site: "...the American Inns of Court adopted the traditional English model of legal apprenticeship and modified it to fit the particular needs of the American legal system."

The International Bar Association (which incidentally was created after WWII) is "physically located at Chancery Lane behind Fleet Street in London" and within the confines of the Inns.

City of London

- Downtown London is walled in (approximately 1 -2 square miles)
- The Imperial Parliament buildings are located in the City of London
- The City of London was never conquered by William the Conqueror (1066)

- The City of London has several gates, one of which is called Temple Bar
- The ONLY true law (800 years of jury trial decisions) schools (4 ea) in the world are in the City of London
- Inns of Court is one of those law schools
- The City of London is foreign territory to the rest of England
- During the convening of the Imperial Parliament, the Queen gives the Throne Speech
- The Queen goes to Temple Bar and requests permission to enter the foreign territory
- The Lord Mayor grants permission
- The Queen then walks 2 steps behind the Lord Mayor, with her head bowed, while she is in the City of London

Attorneys at law are given the title of 'Esquire' through the BAR, a title meaning 'Shield Bearer'; they carry this shield for the 'Crown of the City of London'.

“... we will and establish perpetual obligation and concession we will establish that from the proper and especial revenues of our aforesaid kingdoms, for all the service and customs which we ought to render for them, saving in all things the penny of St. Peter, the Roman church shall receive yearly a thousand marks sterling, namely at the feast of St. Michael five hundred marks, and at Easter five hundred marks-seven hundred, namely, for the kingdom of England, and three hundred for the kingdom of Ireland...” Concessions of England to the Pope (1213)

Bar members are educated in equity law only although there is a whole other legal system still in effect today known as the common law. Common law is Constitutional law.

The BAR and those associated with it are non-entities as far as the Constitution and the authority of the sovereign are concerned.

Therefore, BAR attorneys cannot be classed higher than the sovereign and are, in fact, removed as a sovereign since they have accepted allegiance with other than the people.

Thus, we may conclude that the allegiance of BAR attorneys is not to the law established by the Constitution and, therefore, not to the sovereign.
